

AES Website Privacy and Cookies Policy

Introduction

1. This privacy and cookies policy describes how AES collects, uses, discloses, retains and protects your personal information, in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA) and other relevant laws.
2. Where we refer to “process”, it means how we collect, use, store, make available, destroy, update, disclose, or otherwise deal with your personal information. As a general rule we will only process your personal information if this is required to deliver or offer a service, provide a product or carry out a transaction.
3. We may combine your personal information and use the combined personal information for any of the purposes stated in this Privacy Policy.
4. If you use AES services, goods, products and service channels you agree that we may process your personal information as explained under this Privacy Policy. Sometimes you may provide us with consent to process your personal information. Please read it carefully because it may limit your rights.
5. If we process personal information for another party under a contract or a mandate, the other party’s privacy policy will apply to the processing.
6. AES reserves the right to make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time if the law or our business operations require it.
7. The version of the Privacy Policy displayed on our website will apply to your interactions with us.

- to communicate with you and carry out your instructions and requests;
- for customer satisfaction surveys, promotional offerings.
- to inform you of appropriate products, goods and services you may be interested in;
- to enable you to take part in and make use of value added products and services;
- to assess our lending and insurance risks; and / or
- for any other related purposes.

How we use your personal information for marketing

19. We will use your personal information to market products and services to you.
20. We will do this in person, by post, telephone, or electronic channels such as SMS, email and social media.
21. If you are not our customer, or in any other instances where the law requires, we will only market to you by electronic communications with your consent.
22. In all cases you can request us to stop sending marketing communications to you at any time.

When, how and with whom we share your personal information

23. In general we will only share your personal information if any one or more of the following apply:
  - if you have consented to this;
  - if it is necessary to conclude or perform under a contract we have with you;
  - if the law requires it; and / or
  - if it's necessary to protect or pursue your, our or a third party's legitimate interests.
24. AES will not sell, rent, or trade your personal information to any third party.

Under what circumstances will we transfer your information to other countries?

25. We will only transfer your personal information to third parties in another country in any one or more of the following circumstances:
  - where your personal information will be adequately protected under the other country's laws or an agreement with the third party recipient;
  - where the transfer is necessary to enter into or perform under a contract with you, or a contract with a third party that is in your interest;
  - where you have consented to the transfer; and / or
  - where it is not reasonably practical to obtain your consent, the transfer is in your interest.
26. This transfer will happen within the requirements and safeguards of the law. Where possible, the party processing your personal information in the other country will agree to apply the same level of protection as available by law in your country or if the other country's laws provide better protection the other country's laws would be agreed to and applied.
27. An example of us transferring your personal information to another country is where foreign payments take place if you purchase goods or services in a foreign country.

Your duties and rights about the personal information we have about you

28. You must provide proof of identity when enforcing the rights below.
29. You must inform us when your personal information changes.
30. Please refer to our Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 Manual (PAIA Manual) for further information on how you can give effect to the rights listed below. Download the PAIA Manual from our Website.
31. You have the right to request access to the personal information we have about you by contacting us. This includes requesting:
  - confirmation that we hold your personal information;
  - a copy or description of the record containing your personal information; and
  - the identity or categories of third parties who have had access to your personal information.
32. We will attend to requests for access to personal information within a reasonable time. You may be required to pay a reasonable fee to receive copies or descriptions of records, or information about third parties. We will inform you of the fee before attending to your request.
33. Please note that the law may limit your right to access information.
34. You have the right to request us to correct or delete the personal information we have about you if it is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, obtained unlawfully or we are no longer authorised to keep it.
35. Your request must be in writing. Please refer to our PAIA Manual for further information in this regard, including the process you should follow to give effect to this right. It may take up to 30 business days for the change to reflect on our systems. We may request documents from you to verify the change in personal information.
36. A specific agreement that you have entered into with us may determine how you must change your personal information provided at the time when you entered into the specific agreement. Please adhere to these requirements. If the law requires us to keep the personal information, it will not be deleted upon your request. The deletion of certain personal information may lead to the termination of your business relationship with us.
37. You may object on reasonable grounds to the processing of your personal information.
38. We will not be able to give effect to your objection if the processing of your personal information was and is permitted by law; you have provided consent to the processing and our processing done according to your consent or the processing is necessary to conclude or perform under a contract with you.
39. Where you have provided your consent for the processing of your personal information, you may withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent we will explain the consequences to you. We may proceed to process your personal information even if you have withdrawn your consent if the law permits or requires it.
40. You have a right to file a complaint with us to the Information Regulator about an alleged contravention of the protection of your personal information by us.
41. The Information Regulator's contact details are:

How we secure your personal information

42. We will take appropriate and reasonable technical and organisational steps to protect your personal information according to industry best practices. Our security measures (including physical, technological and procedural safeguards) will be appropriate and reasonable. This includes the following:
  - keeping our systems secure (like monitoring access and usage);
  - storing our records securely;
  - controlling the access to our buildings, systems and/or records; and
  - safely destroying or deleting records.
  - Ensure compliance with international ISO security standards.

43. You can also protect your personal information. Please visit the website of the relevant business you have established a business relationship with for more information.

How long do we keep your personal information?

44. We will keep your personal information for as long as:

- the law requires us to keep it;
- a contract between you and us requires us to keep it;
- you have consented for us keeping it;
- we are required to keep it to achieve the purposes listed in this Privacy Policy;
- we require it for statistical or research purposes;
- a code of conduct requires us to keep it; and / or
- we require it for our lawful business purposes.

45. Please be advised that we may keep your personal information even if you no longer have a relationship with us, for the historical data that may be required by your employer or employee.
